

Where in the world will you go? What in the world will you do?

A PERSONAL ASSESSMENT- COLLEGE THINKING, THE CLASS OF 2011

Consider these questions so that you can apply to the colleges which are right for YOU!!

- What satisfactions and frustrations do you expect to encounter in college?
- What are you looking forward to most about college?
- Why college?
- What is your “ultimate dream job?”
- What are some jobs you really would not want?
- How far away from home do you wish to travel to go to college?
- What special interests do you hope to explore in college?
- Do you want to continue a sport in college?
- Do you want a college where you will be challenged to “your utmost” every day?
- Do you want a small college with close-knit relationships possible with professors?
- Do you want the Big College Scene?
- What degree of academic challenge is best for you?
- How much structure do you want in your college? Do you want to be told what classes to take? Do you want a great deal of personal freedom in your academic choices?
- How do you handle freedom and responsibility?
- How would you feel about going to a college where the students are different from you?
- Give five adjectives which describe you.

- What is the one word your parents would use to describe you.
- What is your greatest academic strength? Weakness?
- What is your greatest personal strength? Weakness?
- On a scale of 1 to 10, how much do you study (1 being not at all)?
- How hard do you wish to study in college?
- What is your favorite possession?
- What is your favorite way to spend a weekend?
- Name five colleges, off the top of your head, which interest you.